Kentucky Department of EDUCATION

DEVELOPING SKILLED MIDDLE & HIGH SCHOOL READERS

A professional learning opportunity for grades 6-12 teachers, coaches and administrators in Kentucky.

LEARNING SESSIONS

Six (6) online, synchronous monthly learning sessions with asynchronous readings and opportunities to practice skills with students. *Exact dates and times will be determined based on participant availability.

- September: How do we learn to read? Exploring Theoretical Frameworks for Reading Development
- October: Decoding Multisyllabic Words within Complex, Grade-Level Texts
- November: Fluency Building within Complex, Grade-Level Texts
- December: Vocabulary and Knowledge Building Essentials
- January: Comprehension as Both Process and Product
- February: Connecting Skilled Reading to Skilled Writing

> It is essential to be part of a cohort like this one to stay on the cutting edge of what is happening in literacy.
>
> Cohort 1 Participant

BENEFITS & APPLICATION

Learn strategies to support striving readers and strengthen Tier 1 instruction.

Learn more about Kentucky's structured literacy initiative and its implications for secondary instruction.

Consult with your district about stipends and PD credit (*up to 15 hours).

Application available now! Scan the QR code to apply today.

Contact kristen.tinch@education.ky.gov with questions.