

Grade	Book Title	Cover Image	Author	Description	Published
Finance
K-2	Bikes for Rent!		Isaac Olaleye	Lateef, a poor boy living in a western Nigeria village, works hard collecting firewood and mushrooms to sell in the marketplace so he can rent a bicycle to ride around the hills and jump potholes with his friends until he wrecks the bike and must work to pay for the repairs.	2001
K-2	The Berenstain Bears' Dollars and Sense		Stan &amp; Jan Berenstain	Brother and Sister Bear know some things about money. What they don't know is how to manage their allowances. Then Mama comes up with a terrific idea to help them learn the value of money and how to save it -- a checkbook!	2001
K-2	The Berenstain Bears' Trouble With Money		Stan &amp; Jan Berenstain	To earn coins for the Astro Bear video game, Brother and Sister Bear find ways to work for money. How they find the middle ground between being spendthrifts and little misers makes for a funny, realistic story.	1983
K-2	Bunny Money		Rosemary Wells	Take one resolute Ruby, add one sly Max, blend in a shopping trip to buy Grandmother's birthday present, and a money mix-up is sure to happen.	2000
K-3	One Cent, Two Cents, Old Cent, New Cent: All About Money		Bonnie Worth	THE CAT IN the Hat puts to rest any notion that money grows on trees in this super simple look at the study of money and its history. Beginning with the ancient practice of bartering, the Cat explains various forms of money used in different cultures.	2008
K-3	Curious George Saves His Pennies		H.A. Rey	When George decides to save up for that special red train in the toystore, he doesn't realize how long it will take—or how hard he'll have to work for his money. But when the time finally arrives to take his very full piggy bank to the toy store—surprise!—George loses it. Can this day, and George's hard-won earnings, be saved?	2014
K-3	My Dad's Job		Peter Glassman	A young boy's imagination takes over as he hears his father talk about his job as a stock market analyst.	2003

1-3	Spend, Save or Donate? A Book About Managing Money		Nancy Loewen	Provides an example of children getting their allowance, and how they decide to spend, save, and donate their earnings.	2005
1-3	The Coin Counting Book		Rozanne Lanczak Williams	This book offers the young reader the opportunity to see the coins in detail and to appreciate their value. The book begins with counting pennies in relation to a nickel and then to a dime. Then nickels and dimes in relation to quarters; all denominations in relation to a fifty cent piece; and finally how many coins does it take to make a dollar.	2001
1-5	Rent Party Jazz		William Miller	During the Depression in New Orleans, Sonny's mother loses her job and may not be able to pay the rent. But Sonny persuades Smilin' Jack, an itinerant trumpet player, to be the music for a rent party. Neighbors come, bringing food to share, coins for the rent bucket and plenty of goodwill for dancing, talking and enjoying the music. An author's note explains how rent parties originated in the South in the 1920s and 1930s to raise money for those in need.	2008
3-5	Careers For Kids Who Like Math &amp; Money		Diane Lindsey Reeves	Kids with a love of numbers and math concepts may find this industry both satisfying and challenging. What does it take to pursue a career in math and money? This book helps kids identify their personality traits and guides them on how best to apply those skills to careers in the mathematical or financial field.	2007
3-5	Cash, Credit Cards, or Checks		Nancy Loewen	Lively stories offer a valuable lesson in this introduction to basic economic concepts. Smarty the Pig adds helpful tips and money advice throughout this engaging and informative book.	2005
4-5	Money Sense for Kids		Hollis Page Harman	This popular title for older boys and girls tells the story of money. The book's fascinating text is supplemented with two-color diagrams and illustrations on nearly every page.	2005
4-5	The Everything Kids' Money Book		Brette McWhorter Sember	From saving for a new bike to investing their allowance online, kids get the "cents" they need with this book. They'll also learn how coins and bills are made, what money can buy, how credit cards work, and much more!	2008

4-5	Growing Money: A Complete and Completely Updated Investing Guide for Kids		Gail Karlitz	Holding a fistful of imaginary dollars, young, would-be millionaires try their hands at saving and investing and come away with lots of financial savvy.	2001
4-5	Opening a Bank Account		Stuart Schwartz	This book explains the steps for opening a bank account offers advice on choosing a bank and selecting a type of account.	1999
4-5	Our Money		Karen B. Spies	This quick, easy-to-read book will give you a few new word meanings in our language and enlighten you with some good information.	2001
4-5	Millions		Frank Cottrell Boyce	What would you do with a million in cash? This is the problem facing Damian and his brother Anthony. When a million British pounds seemingly fall from the sky, Damian sees this as a case of divine intervention. Set just days before the conversion of the pound to the Euro, Damian must find a way to spend the money before it loses its value.	2005