

The Future of Assessment and Accountability

This isn't just a new policy – It is a movement to put students at the center.

COMMUNITY BUSINESS

Why This Matters for YOU

Gives local communities more voice and autonomy in shaping education

Builds stronger connections between schools, communities and employers

Prepares students with the real-world skills your businesses and communities need

What to Expect

A focus on real-world skills and student readiness

Opportunities to collaborate directly with schools and teachers

A system that values your voice and insight

Be a Champion. Be an Advocate. Help bring the Vision to Life.

- Partner with schools to offer internships, job shadowing, mentorships or service projects
- Host or attend exhibitions, student showcases and community discussions
- Share your perspective with school leaders on the skills students need to succeed in your community or industry
- Help spread the message: Advocate for this new system with local boards, policymakers and other stakeholders
