Answers to frequently asked questions:
- Sessions will start at the scheduled time to allow participants to join for selected topics.
- Sessions will be recorded and available on the KDE Media Portal Archive tab.
- To receive EILA credit, participants must 1) register, 2) participate the training, and 3) complete the training survey you will receive following training. Certificates will be delivered by email within one week following the training. Please follow these steps and check you junk mail/filtered mail before inquiring about your survey or certificate.
- If you have questions about accessibility or to request an accommodation, please contact School Data Services by e-mail. Requests should be made in advance.
- If you don't plan to participate but want a copy of the slides, send a request to the School Data Services mailbox.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Thank you!
