Title III: Language Instruction for English Learners and Immigrant Student

This program focuses on ensuring children who are English learners, including immigrant children and youth, attain English proficiency, develop high levels of academic attainment in English, and meet the same challenging state academic content and student academic achievement standards as all children are expected to meet. An English learner is defined as a student:

- A) who is aged 3 through 21;
 - (B) who is enrolled or preparing to enroll in an elementary school or secondary school;
 - (C)(i) who was not born in the United States or whose native language is a language other than English;
 - (ii)(I) who is a Native American or Alaska Native, or a native resident of the outlying areas; and
 - (II) who comes from an environment where a language other than English has had a significant impact on the individual's level of English language proficiency; or
 - (iii) who is migratory, whose native language is a language other than English, and who comes from an environment where a language other than English is dominant; and
 - (D) whose difficulties in speaking, reading, writing, or understanding the English language may be sufficient to deny the individual —
 - (i) the ability to meet the challenging State academic standards;
 - (ii) the ability to successfully achieve in classrooms where the language of instruction is English;
- or
- (iii) the opportunity to participate fully in society. (ESEA Section 8101(20))

An immigrant child is defined as a student who:

- (A) is aged 3 through 21;
- (B) was not born in any U.S. state; and
- (C) has not been attending one or more schools in any one or more U.S. states for more than 3 full academic years.

IDEA-B: Individuals with Disabilities Education Act

This program provides for the excess cost of providing a free appropriate public education to students ages 3 through 21 who have educational disabilities. These funds may only be used to identify, locate, evaluate children with potential disabilities and to pay for the excess cost of specially designed instruction and related services as prescribed in an Individual Education Program for identified children. Excess cost includes direct and indirect services and the administrative needs of the program. Input to the local school district from private school representative and parents of children with disabilities who are in private, parochial, or home schools will be used to determine what services for private school students with disabilities will be available from these funds.
