

The Teaching and Learning (TL) career pathway is comprised of 3 core courses + 1 elective course. Each course available has an aligned Program of Studies with specific objectives. A resource/activity library has been developed by Kentucky educators familiar with the TL pathway courses, as well as suggested course scope and sequencing.

These are suggested supports but are not required to be used as part of the Teaching and Learning Pathway.

Core Courses	Suggested Units
331030 The Learning Community. In this course, students develop an understanding of the various responsibilities and systems involved in the K-12 educational system. Specifically, students will acquire the knowledge of education through the perspective of classroom, school, district, state, and federal roles. In clinical experiences, students are embedded in observational and small group or individual teaching settings. They engage with students, schools, and stakeholders across the community to better understand how the community functions as a system, noting how elements within the system relate and interact and the impact of students.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Building Your Mindset and Equity Awareness 2. School Communities and Systems 3. How Teachers Think and Classroom Management 4. The Basics of Instruction
331031 The Learner-Centered Classroom. This course will develop rising educators' awareness of their funds of knowledge, as well as their personal biases that develop from their life experiences. Using research-based methods, rising educators will develop methods to impact student equity based on culturally competent models as well as growth mindset methods. The students will be embedded in classrooms in observing and active teaching roles (any of the 5 co-teaching models). They will experience a variety of settings in order to reflect on their developing understanding and skills across the K-12 spectrum.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
